

Dear all,

It's a real pleasure and privilege to be introducing my first YUF newsletter as Interim CEO. As the first rays of spring sunshine tempt others out of doors, the Youth United team is busy analysing the end of programme returns for the Uniformed Youth Social Action Fund (UYSAF). The results will be available later in the summer but if the stories which feature in this newsletter are anything to go by, they should be good.

First we look at the work that the Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade have been doing to deliver significant growth with the help of UYSAF funding. Then we turn to the Youth United Network's newest member, the Jewish Lads' and Girls' Brigade and hear how its members have been partnering with charities on social action initiatives in Leeds, London, Nottingham and elsewhere. And finally we're celebrating the opening up of the Sea Cadets' boating station at the Royal Docks to young people in the area– not only does this initiative look like it's been lots of fun but it has also stimulated young people from all over East London to become Sea Cadets themselves.

It was great to see the really strong results of The Scout Association survey a couple of weeks ago, demonstrating an eleventh consecutive year of growth – and even better for us here to read the comments of Liz Fraser, County Commissioner for Humberside, on the contribution that YUF funding has made to that growth.

Many thanks,

significant growth

Find out how, with the help of Youth United's Uniformed Youth Social Action Fund (UYSAF), The Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade (CLCGB) has grown its membership base by 50% in just two years!
