

Dear all,

2016 is already off to a great start with both the Prime Minister and our Patron, HRH The Prince of Wales, showing support for the work of Youth United. In celebration of the Cubs 100th Anniversary, the Prime Minister spoke about their achievements and included the broader work of Youth United! We hope you enjoy this quick clip of Prime Minister's Questions. As well, earlier this week HRH The Prince of Wales visited with a volunteer Police Cadet unit in Burslem that has received YUF funding.

In other news, I had a great chat with Girlguiding about the work we do together. The piece they developed for the Girlguiding community is included in the newsletter as our first article!

As well, Youth United has also been all over the press in the Isle of Man. The Volunteer Police Cadets are expanding there and the media has written several exciting stories about that growth.

Finally, to show our support for the #Cubs100, we share an article about a new UYSAF funded Cubs unit in Northern Ireland. This is the first time that Youth United Foundation have funded activity in Northern Ireland and we are very excited to watch their progress. The Sixmilecross Cubs are off to a flying start!

Best wishes,

Meet the CEO of Girlguiding funder Youth United

Girlguiding recently published a blog around a chat they had with our CEO, Lindsay Levkoff Lynn, about all the exciting work we have done together and Lindsay's work at Youth United!
